INSTRUCTOR MEETING/INTERVIEW FOR FACULTY-LED INTERIM AND MAY AWAY TRAVEL COURSES

A meeting or interview with the instructor is required for an Interim or May Away faculty-led study away course.

Before your application can be marked as completed, you must schedule a time to meet with the travel instructor to discuss the course requirements.

You will need to print this form off, take it with you to the meeting and have the instructor sign and date it to verify you have met with them.

Once completed, you are required to scan (JPG or PDF files accepted) and upload the signed form into your online application.

This must be completed by the application deadline or your application will not be reviewed.
